

As of 2015, MLPCARE is structured to create a synergy by gathering up three pioneering players of healthcare sector, Medical Park Hospitals, Liv Hospitals and VM Medical Park Hospitals, under a single roof to be a global player with this power.

MLPCARE serves today with 27 Hospitals in 17 cities in Turkey and with its global representatives worldwide with the objective of being accessible for everyone from all over the world and providing the personalized and qualified medical service with its state of art technologies such as Da Vinci, True Beam, Tomotherapy, Gamma Knife, and experienced academic physicians in their fields in each hospitals.

MLPCARE hospitals have been accredited by JCI (Joint Commission International), TÜV SÜD, EBMT (European Bone Marrow Transplantation Joint), European Community for non-relative Bone Marrow Transplantations and also became a member of US International Bone Marrow Transplantation Association, International Organ Transplantation Associations and International Cellular Therapy Association.

Under this giant and powerful structure, Medical Park Hospital Group serves at international standards based on the principle "healthcare for all" with its state of the art medical technologies and the experienced 1.500 physician staff including 235 academic physicians from different medical specialties as the widest medical network at 25 hospitals in 17 cities in Turkey. There are also new hospitals to be opened in Turkey as of 2016.

Medical Park Hospital Group is providing services as a reference center in all branches for adults and pediatrics including organ transplants, bone marrow transplants, neurosurgery, oncology, cardiovascular surgery, obesity surgery, IVF, Orthopedics, Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery, Dental Clinic, Ophthalmology, General Surgery, stem cell and tissue typing and also genetic diagnostic center.

Beside its multidisciplinary approach, Medical Park Hospitals Group has academic collaborations as well with Bahcesehir University Faculty of Medicine, Istanbul Kemerburgaz University and Izmir University as the affiliated faculties of medicine.

Today Medical Park Hospital Group has spread not only all over Turkey but also all over the world with its existing representative offices and the offices to be come into service in an attempt to be the leading actor of healthcare as an easily accessible and widest medical network with its medical knowledge and case experience, service quality, international patient services and facility management experience.