

Prof. Dr. ismail ÖZDEMİR, MD

Ear Nose and Throat Specialist

Ear - Nose - Throat Illnesses and Head and Neck Surgery Specialist. Graduated from Ankara Atatürk High School in 1974. He got his degree from Hacettepe University Faculty of Medicine in 1980. He recieved ENT Specialist Training from Hacettepe University Faculty of Medicine's ENT Department in 1984. After completing his military service in Ankara Mevki hospital as a ENT Specialist, he began his compulsory service in Ordu State Hospital in 1986.

He worked as chief intern in İzmir Atatürk Education and Study Hospital in 1989, as deputy chief in 1991, and as associate professor in 1994 up until June 2008. In June 2008, he served as Founding Chief Physician of the ENT Department of Namık Kemal University Faculty of Medicine, Department Head of Surgical Medical Sciences, and Faculty of Medicine Member in the University Senate. He resigned from his position in August 2010.

He is experienced in the diagnosis and treatment of pediatric ear - nose - throat illnesses, micro surgery of ear diseases, endoscopic procedures of sinus and nose diseases, aesthetical nose surgeries, and head and neck surgical procedures. He has actively participated in the theoretical and practical training of more than 40 ENT specialists in these areas.

Abroad: He has attended courses on Endoscopic Sinus Surgery in Köln University (Germany), Brussels Free University (Belgium); and given education and participated in observation on ENT Diseases and Neck/Head surgery in Johns Hopkins University (USA), and in Güstave-Roussy Cancer Institute (Paris - France)